Best businesses in TWT Territory revealed

The Northern Districts Local Business Awards gala presentation dinner was recently held at The Epping Club, with our best local businesses announced across more than 30 categories.

The glitzy event featured a premium entertainment lineup including Hyde-based star of The Voice in both Armenia and Australia, Misha Miroyan. West Ryde business, Myphysio, said it was very proud to be acknowledged as the winner of Outstanding Health Improvement Services category and thanked all its clients for their support throughout the years.

"Myphysio was established 12 years ago in West Ryde with the mission to provide high quality, accessible and effective allied health service to the local community," it said in a statement.

"Since then we have extended our services to Baulkham Hills, Macquarie Park, Chatswood, Ryde, Merrylands, Darling Square and Epping. "Our strong team of physiotherapists and allied health professionals loves helping people to get back on their feet. Seeing them enjoying their body again is what makes our day!"

amazing night and we feel so honoured to have been selected as the winner for outstanding performing arts 2022.

"This award means so much to us and we haven't been able to wipe the smiles off our faces."

Kate was 18 years old when she commenced the journey of KLD Performing Arts. "And I have personally loved every single moment. We are just about to celebrate 15 years!" she said. "We are so lucky - our beloved teachers once use to be students themselves at KLD."

"They can't get enough and have come back to continue their journey - just in a different way."

"To further tap into this source of strength, KLD is planning to commence a parents group from 2023. Despite lockdown, KLD continued to stay strong thanks to the amazing support of its families."

"We had approximately 95% of students who had the 'Show Must Go On' level ONLINE studios," Kate said.
